NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

In accordance with all applicable state and federal laws and regulations cited below*, Community Health and Counseling Services (CHCS) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, genetic information, and status as protected veteran, or any other trait that is protected under local, state or federal law in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs or activities.

CHCS has an Affirmative Action Program (AAP) which is available for inspection by any applicant or employee at the Human Resources office between 8:30 am and 4:00 pm on any work day. Individuals wishing to inspect the AAP should contact the Director of Human Resources to establish a time which is convenient to review the material.

The person whose name appears below has been designated to coordinate our efforts to comply with the U.S. Department of Labor regulations implementing these Federal laws. You may contact this person for further information about these regulations and our grievance procedure for the resolution of discrimination complaints.

CHCS Services for Children & Families

Selecting the Best Service for You or Your Family

An array of services allows you and your child to access those that are most beneficial for his or her needs. We work with you and your child to provide support and connections within the community.

Services are selected for your child to achieve the most positive of outcomes.

Children's Services Value Statement

Your child receives services that promote healthy growth and development and are values guided, client directed, and outcome informed.

- Values Guided - The services offered to your child are motivated and led by the principles of respect, caring, fairness and understanding.
- Client Directed – Your child and family will be actively encouraged to contribute and provide input while receiving services.
- Outcome Informed – We work in partnership with you and your family to deliver beneficial and effective services.

Caring Professionals

Our staff are trained in a variety of clinical models and techniques. Listening to your child and family is the first priority in the treatment process. Staff seek ideas and preferences from all involved to enhance treatment. CHCS staff actively seek feedback on a regular basis to ensure that your child and family are satisfied with and benefiting from the services provided.
